NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

"GREEN GOODS" MEN ARRESTED. Three important arrests of alleged "green goods" men were made in Jersey City yesterday afternoon by Deputy United States Marshal MacHugh, of Jersey The prisoners were Frank Graham, Frank Martin and Frederick Bowers, the latter living in West Thirty-fifth-st., New-York. They were taken to Newark and arraigned before United States Com-missioner Whitehead, who committed them to juil in default of $3,000 ball each, for trial in the United States District Court at Trenten. During the last two months the gang of "green goods" men, numbering thirty or forty, who have their head-quarters in Jersey City have sent out through the mails 668,000 circulars addressed to all parts of the country. The circulars were mailed to the addresses of diderent persons, and they hold out altering bargains whereby $100 bills, impossible to detect and winely circulated, could be obtained for a fraction of that amount. The circulars were signed with fictitions names

Three charges were made against Graham, Martin and Bowers before the Commissioner: Using false names; sending out fraudulent circulars through the mails, and receiving replies to the circulars under false names. The postoffice authorities have secured evidence to show the operations of the "green goods" swindlers in unlawful use of the mails, and it is probable that other arrests will follow.

Thursday, was buried yesterday. The expenses were paid by subscription. Father Finnegan rend the Catholic burial service at the grave, which is in West Side Cemstery. There was only one woman, a colored woman named Johnson, who had known Hallinger for many years. The cost of Hallinger's imprisonment and the many preparations for his execution was about $3,000. Edward W. Hallinger, who was hanged on George Wilson, who robbed Fatrick Govern's house and assented Mrs. Govern with a knife when she detected him, was yesteday sentenced by Judge Lippincott to State Prison for eight years. There were three other sentences, making twenty three years in all, but the terms all run together.

NEW BRUNSWICK.
Clinton E. Williams, of Baltimore, formerly chief dispatcher for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railrond at Omaha, was beutally bleked, blaten and robbed of $37 on Thursday evening in this city, at John Brannon's barroom, Throop-ave, and Redm st. His assailants were the hangers on of the place, led by John, allas "Butch," Welsh, a "card-sharper." Mr. Williams was in New-Bran-wick on business. Early on Thursday evening he met Michael Daily at the Palmer Hotel, and together they went to Brannon's place and begon to play poker. They were soon joined by Welsh. After an hour with varying rejoined by Weish. After an hour with varying results, Williams detected Weish in the act of cheating. Williams, who was a little ahead of the game, withdrew, and started to leave the place. He had no sooner risen than Weish struck him a blow back of the ear which felled him to the grained. This was a signal to a gaing of about thirty ruffinis present, and they kicked and beat the prestrate man until he was nearly insensible. The crowd then rifled Williams's pockets and stole $37. Constables Reed and Gilliard were summoned, and succeeded in arresting Weish, who gave ball to appear before the Grand Jury, Williams was taken to the office of a physician, who dressed his wounds. Yesterday mounting he was unable to leave his bed, and his testimony was taken by a justice in his room.

The Commissioners of the sinking Fund held their annual meeting yesterday, and retired $137,000 of tax arrearage bonds, and $200,000 of school bonds. Robert F. Ballantine was elected president, Frederick Frelinghuysen treasurer, and George Ashwood clerk.

George Cantrell, a driver for the Newark Boof Com-pany, was arrested last night on the charge of stealing sides of beef to the value of $220. He is said to have sold them at low rates. The police say that the thieving has been going on for three mouths, and that there are others implicated.

that there are others implicated.

The 116th analysis of the listile of Trenton will be celebrated by the New-Jersey Society of the Sons of the American Revolution with appropriate exercises next Monday in Newark. The annual meeting of the society is appointed for that day, and will be held at Davi's pariors, in Broad st., at noon. The most important question which will be discussed at the meeting is the union of the Sons of the American Revolution with the Sons of the Revolution.

LONG ISLAND CITY .- Michael Smith died at his No. 178 Vernen-ave., yesterday from smallpox. He had been employed to watch a house in which several cases of smallpox were quarantined and caught the disease from members of the families in which It was prevalent. The inefficiency of the majority of the men who are placed in charge of quarantined houses and their allowing persons to pass freely in and out of the houses has resulted in the disease spreading to an alarming extent in the most thickly populated parts of the city. . . . YONKISHS, Mrs. Josephine Lyons, of No. 140
High-st., was badly burned last evening while fliding a lamp. She had placed the lamp on the stove, and when the grobe was full it overnowed, and the oil guited from the fire in the stove. The flames spread to her clothes, and before they were extinguished she was landly hilstered. She was reanyed to St. Joseph's Hospital, and is in a critical condution.

CONFLICTING REPORTS FROM THADE CENTRES. The budgess fatlares reported by telegraph to E. G. Dun & Co., in the last week numbered 283 for the United States and 1s for Cameia, a total of 201, compared with totals of 201 in the previous week and 202 for the corresponding week of 1891. The holiday trade throughout the North seems usually large, especially at Chicago, St. Louis and Cleveland, and it is lively at some Southern points, such as Knoxville, but only fair at Memphis and Little Rock. In other products distribution appears generally larger than usual for the season, particularly in drygoods, shees and farmiture of the better grave. On the other hand, money markets are showing more sizes of pressure, and at Chicago money is strong with 6 per cent the minimum; at Cheinmani, Cleveland and Minneapells close, at Detroit and Minwankes strong at 7 per cent, and active at st. Pani, while usual rates prevail at Kansas Chy, and at New-Orleans there is good supply and very moderate demand. It is also worthy of pute that collections are somewhat less satisfactory at the West, being beckward at st. Pani and Minneapolis, though improving at Milwankee, but they are only fair at the South. such as Knoxville, but only fair at Memphis

GAS COMMISSIONEES MAKE AWARDS. The Gas Commissioners at a meeting held in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon awarded a contract to the Thomson-Houston Electric Light Company for lighting forty-five lamps at 40 cents a night each, for one year from January 1, 1803, the lamps being in Eighti-st., Bowery, Fourteenth to Forty-second st. and Fourth to Sixth ave. The contract for seventeen lamps at 40 cents a lamp was awarded to the Manhattan Electric Light Company for lamps between Forty-first and Fitty-ninth sts. in Madison-ave. The Edjeon Electric Duralisating Company got the costract for fifty seven lamps at 50 cents a lamp. They are in Fifthave., between Washington Square

THE BLOWS MAY PROVE FATAL. Daniel J. Kennedy, one of the preprietors of a concert half "dive" in Manjer-st, is confined to his come, No. 364 South st., the result of a severe clubhome. No. 21st south st., the result of a severe chindren bing received from his partner, Harry Davis, a former newspaper man. The assault occurred on Thursday night, and was the outcome of a quarrel over the receipts of a ball given on the previous night, each charging the other with taking part of the receipts. Mr. Davis occupies a suit of rooms in the Hotel Mr. Davis occupies a suit of rooms in the Hotel Roswyck, while Kennedy lives in a tenement-house. This fact has been the cause, it is said, of frequent quarrels between the two men. Kennedy alleging that Davis was using the money of the business to pay his expenses. On Thursday night both purtners met in barroom, where the old trouble was renewed. blows were exchanged, and before friends could inter Elows were exchanged, and before friends could interfere Davis sciped a club and struck Kennedy several blows. Each blow unde an urly wound on Kennedy's head ant face. Davis then took what money there was in the cash-box and left the place. He has not retuned. Kennedy was taken to his home, where his wounds were sewed up by a physician. Yesterday his condition had become serious, and it is now feared that erystpelas may set in. Davis has not yet been arrested.

ALL HER EFFORTS COULD NOT KEEP HIM. Mrs. Annie Koparz, of No. 78 Box-st., in the Lee Avenue Police Court yesterday charged Albert Ud-workley with grand larceny. Mrs. Koparz is a young widow, and was to have become Udworkley's wife widow, and was to have become Curvinary's who on Christmas Day. A few days ago the two quartelled, and how they do not speak, some time ago Udworkley's aunt died in Inda-Pesth, leaving him 15,000 thalers. Udwarkley told the good news to the young widow, and she received it with delight.
A week aco Mrs. Koparz missed $120 which she had saved, but refrained from speaking of her loss to Udworkley until a few days ago, when she found a number of letters written to him by a young woman in Cracow, whom, the letters stated, he had promised to marry after the holidays. Mrs. Koparz the next day threatened him with arrest, and he is said to have day threatened him with arrest, and he is said to have returned $100 of the missing molicy. Relieving that he contemplated leaving the country, she caused his arrest. It was shown in court that many of the facts sworn to in the complaint were false. Justice footening thereupon dismissed the case.

Mrs. Kopara became greatly excited, and as she was leaving the continuous she threatened to be avenged. Udworkley will sail for Germany to-day.
